CALVARY CONNECTIONS

Dalen Goff

I was born in Wichita, Kansas, but my family moved to Booneville, Arkansas in 1969. As the youngest of seven siblings, I grew up on a lively farm, surrounded by cattle and gardens. Those early years instilled in me the value of hard work and the joy of simple pleasures—like fishing in quiet streams and sharing stories under the shade of a favorite tree with family and friends. My mother made sure church was always at the heart of our lives, shaping my faith from an early age.

Some of my fondest memories are of camping and fishing trips to the Buffalo River. The beauty and outdoor opportunities of Arkansas have always drawn me in, and if I could choose anywhere to live, it would be right here. The land, the people, and the sense of community make Arkansas home.

I met Rochelle at her workplace, and with a little help from a co-worker, I learned about some of her favorite things—enough to impress her without coming across as a stalker! That led to a fun first date, and now, after 31 years of marriage, we have four children and five grandchildren. Our faith and relationship with God have been the foundation of our marriage and family life.

My career has taken me through several fields, including carpentry, funeral directing and embalming, and roles at Danaher and Glad Manufacturing, where I eventually retired. Each position taught me valuable lessons and allowed me to connect with people from all walks of life.

I have a passion for thrifting—the thrill of the “scavenger hunt,” finding unique, one-of-a-kind items, and saving money. There’s something special about acquiring quality, vintage pieces that tell a story. Still, I never hesitate to splurge on my loved ones when there’s a need/want or a special occasion. Throughout my life, I’ve been involved in youth ministry and served on the church safety team. Coming to Calvary was a decision rooted in family and faith. My hope is to be remembered as someone who loved Jesus and lived as a good Christian. After experiencing a stroke on Jan. 4, 2022, I’ve tried to show strength and faith, even when it was difficult. If I could offer advice to my younger self, it would be: do everything with purpose and trust God. That perspective continues to guide me each day.
