Rochelle Goff

I was born in Fort Smith, Arkansas, and raised in Ratcliff, a small town with a population of 197. I graduated from County Line High School and am the youngest of five siblings: Tonya, Tamara, Trung[adopted brother], Brent[my twin-7 minutes older & passed away 10 years ago] & myself. I shout it loud and proud that I am the favorite child. LOL-an ongoing joke with the family. My parents instilled strong values in me through regular attendance at First Assembly in Paris, Arkansas, where I developed a lasting faith. The first time I ever missed Sunday School was on my senior class trip. For me church is essential. It is where my mind, soul and spirit can reboot. It's also where I fell in love with Jesus and asked him to be my personal savior. Jesus is my home.

I am 52 years old and have been married to my husband, Dalen, for 31 years. We have one son, Keaton, and I have three bonus children: Brandon, Kelsey, and Ashtean. Our family also includes a son-in-law, Joe, a daughter-in-law, Holly, and five grandchildren: Emersyn, Addison, Madelyn, Aiden, and Abel. Keaton and Holly are currently in the process of adopting, and we look forward to welcoming another grandchild soon. Last but not least, is my fur baby, Kilo who is a 3-year Goldendoodle [my best buddy].

I have worked for the Springdale School District for 25 years, currently serving as cafeteria manager at Sonora Elementary. I also worked at George & Bayyari Elementary. I plan to retire in three years.

My church experience includes leading Missionettes, special needs classes and serving as teen leaders at the Assembly, and teaching Pre-K Sunday School, teens and Children's Church with Dalen at Calvary. We retired from teaching Children's Church two years ago.

I leave you with my favorite verse. Isaiah 64: 3-4

“Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb: “And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.”
