Charlene Bowen

I was born in Huntsville, AR & lived on Reynolds Mountain with our extended families. Some favorite memories were going to the store with Dad, him holding my hand & parents taking me to church[My Dad was a preacher & deacon]. A favorite childhood memory was sewing with Granny. At that time, I made all my clothes and Granny was instrumental in teaching me. I started singing in church at 4 years of age, so my dream was to become a gospel singer.

I met Jackie at church. My Dad offered to buy me a gold watch if I would not get married[they were going to miss my absence and that I would soon follow Jackie with the military[ended up in Germany]. Regardless of the offer, they loved Jackie & was very supportive to our marriage. The keys to a successful marriage is staying in church and serving the Lord. We have one son, Wayne that I adore. One big accomplishment for us, was that we we worked extra hard saving money to send our son to college. As a family, we enjoyed camping, going on cruises[One time my son, Wayne and I zip-lined on the cruise ship] and just being together. I learned how to cook after I got married, which was quite a deal! Our first meal was pizza [from the store]. People would be surprised to know that I like to ride horses[“Old Blaze” every day in my childhood] & love sewing. My first job was at the Farmers Coop, while attending school. My last job was at National Home Center. I loved my job as the first female manager. I loved working with people and most passionate about honesty, getting jobs done correctly & the books balanced at work. I came to my faith by going to church at People’s Mission Church. We never asked if we were going to church or what we were wearing...Daddy made that real clear when he got saved. We came to Calvary because of the preaching, singing & friendly people. If I could give a piece of advice, it would be to stay in church, be faithful, trust God, & pay your 10% tithes. My Dad always said He could do more with .90 cents than a $1.00 & we were poor, but God always provided. I continue to keep my faith strong by attending church, praying and staying behind Bro. Clark. I want my legacy to be known as a person that lived a good Christian life.
