Tamara Snow

I was born December 25th, in Ft. Smith, AR. My best childhood memories are climbing trees and playing in shell pits. My favorite subjects in school were P.E. and Study Hall. I always wanted to be an airline flight attendant or cruise worker when I grew up. My first job was as a cashier at a convenience store. Later on, I worked at Dari-Delight, which is where I met Clark at the drive thru window. When I first met Clark, I had just finished schooling for travel. Travel studies were for airline, cruise line & railroad. I would have been able to work in any of those areas. I was to leave for Florida for on-sight schooling a few weeks later - I decided not to go to see where our relationship took us. We married later and have one child, Ashlee... who is my greatest accomplishment. I'm most thankful for God's grace and my family. Someday, on my bucket list, I hope to go to Hawaii with Ashlee & Harrison.

I came to Calvary because it was God's calling on Clark's life. If I could give a piece of advice, it would be to fear God. I keep my faith strong by reading the Bible, praying continually and trusting God.

A STATE OF THE STA

Every Christmas season for the past several years we have had the privilege of watching our grandchildren open their Christmas gifts. It has become a family tradition. Each year it's a delight to see their anticipation as they tear wrapping paper away and then see a gift they wanted but had not expected.

Whatever gifts we give each other, none comes close to the gift God gave us on the first Christmas Day some 2,000 years ago—the gift of his Son, the Lord Jesus. It's a gift too wonderful for words. God's gift to us is the most costly gift ever. It's the gift not only of the birth but also of the death of his Son, our Lord Jesus. It's a gift we don't own, because we belong to him, and we can't keep this gift for ourselves. Most important, Jesus is the gift that each one of us needs desperately. Without him there is no hope, no life, no future.

God's gift to us on that first Christmas calls us to celebrate and worship. Make sure to come and worship Christ the Lord today. Accept God's gift and receive him as your Lord and Savior. Invite someone who does not know about this gift to come with you. And as you celebrate, ask the Lord for open doors to share this gift in days to come.

Father in heaven, thank you for your gift that is too wonderful for words. Help us to accept your gift and share it. To you be all glory. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Ingredients

1 1/2 cups crushed pineapple, well-drained 2 cups finely crushed graham cracker crumbs 1 cup sweetened shredded coconut (plus extra for rolling) 1/2 cup powdered sugar 1/2 teaspoon almond extract (optional, for extra flavor)

Directions

- 1. Begin by thoroughly draining the crushed pineapple to reduce excess moisture; this will help the mixture hold together better.
- 2. In a mixing bowl, combine the well-drained pineapple, graham cracker crumbs, shredded coconut, and powdered sugar. If you're using almond extract, add it now to enhance the flavor.
- 3. Use a sturdy spatula or mix with your hands until the mixture is cohesive and sticky.
- 4. Once the ingredients are fully incorporated, take a tablespoon-sized amount of the mixture and flatten it slightly in your palm. Then, roll it into a ball shape.
- Roll each ball in extra shredded coconut to coat completely, ensuring they are beautifully covered.
- 6. Arrange the coconut-coated balls on a parchment-lined tray and chill them in the refrigerator for about an hour to set and firm up. Serve them cold or at room temperature, and enjoy the tropical flavors!

Yield: 20 balls
